

SONESTA RESORTS ST. MAARTEN UNVEILS NEW ‘POP THE QUESTION’ PACKAGES

The iconic all-inclusive resorts launch a series of customizable experiences for couples looking to get engaged in the picturesque Dutch Caribbean setting

MAHO, St. Maarten (January 16, 2024) – Sonesta Resorts St. Maarten, the premier all-inclusive resort duo on St. Maarten, unveils its expanded ‘Pop the Question’ proposal package offering exciting new ways for couples to get engaged in Dutch Caribbean paradise. Offering additional enhancement details and added proposal sites across the upscale adults-only Ocean Point Resort, family-friendly Maho Beach Resort, Casino & Spa and adjacent entertainment & shopping center Maho Village, couples can expect the ideal engagement setting.

“Sonesta Resorts St. Maarten is a lush tropical setting prime for romantic experiences,” said Annesha York, Weddings & Events Sales Manager at Sonesta Resorts St. Maarten. “Whether an intimate rooftop moment, or an over-the-top display of candles, florals, and delicious dining set to our pristine Caribbean coastline, couples are able to provide us with a sense of what they are looking for and we can customize the perfect setting for their perfect moment.”

Available for bookings year-round, the Pop the Question package starts at $749 and includes a private venue space for four hours complete with romantic dinner for two, sparkling wine toast, décor such as votive candles, floral arrangement and a “Marry Me” LED sign, and one-hour professional photography service with high-resolution images shared at a later time.

For those looking to indulge in even more romance, additional features and services can be added a la carte in coordination with the wedding and events team. Couples can opt to include specific champagne varietals, a customizable arch, sparklers, tiki torch dinner, photography on Maho Beach, videography, uplighting, rose petals and entertainment such as violinist, guitarist, and saxophonist as enhancement. Alternative location options across both resorts include the Gazebo at La Fontana, Zen Garden, Ocean Garden View, Sands, and other breathtaking locations. Perfectly situated along the picturesque coastline and home to an array of lush scenic viewpoints, Sonesta Resorts St. Maarten works alongside couples to bring romantic ideas to life.

Offering a variety of accommodations including swim-out suites, intimate spa experiences, multiple dining concepts to choose from, and a daily activity calendar of endless fun and entertainment, Sonesta Resorts St. Maarten hosts the perfect retreat for every romantic experience.
